

Network for Undergraduate Research in Virginia

4th Annual Conference: Network for Undergraduate Research in Virginia Call for Submissions

The Network for Undergraduate Research in Virginia (NURVa) is a consortium of Virginia colleges and universities dedicated to supporting undergraduate research and creative activity throughout the state.

The NURVa conference is an opportunity for undergraduates in all disciplines to present their research and creative work at our 4th annual statewide conference. The conference will be held on Saturday, November, 18, 2023, on the campus of Hampden-Sydney College in Hampden-Sydney, VA.

Faculty mentors are encouraged to attend.

Conference registration, which includes lunch, will be free as the conference has been completely underwritten by a generous grant from the 4-VA Foundation.

NURVa invites submissions from undergraduates in all disciplines in the categories of oral presentation (12-minute), poster, or performance.

Submit abstracts (750 words maximum) with one letter of support from a faculty mentor endorsing the presentation of the project.

Submission deadline for students and for faculty letters is midnight, October 15, 2023. No more than two submissions are permitted per student.

Submission portal: <https://tinyurl.com/NURVa2023Nov>

Any questions, contact Dr. David A. Salomon, david.salomon@cnu.edu.

Graduate Schools: Purchase a table for $100 (includes lunch for two representatives) to promote your programs with our students. Contact kswaby@vt.edu by November 1.

The Network for Undergraduate Research in Virginia (NURVa) is a registered 501(c)(3) non-profit organization.